FATHER DARKLEAF

By The Editor

Several Appomattox boys are in action in Korea. Sgt. first class John Terrence was one of the first in Korea, moving over from Japan at the outbreak of hostilities.

Your editor set out one day this week to count the No Parking and traffic signs along just two blocks in Appomattox: from Lee Theatre corner around by the depot to the hotel. Want to guess? Forty-seven!

By way of a Georgia reporter, we pass on this item on reducing: A man who had fought the battle of weight for years surrendered his guaranteed one-day diet for publication. Here goes, even to timing:

Breakfast—A jigger of tomato juice, quarter slice of crisp rye bread, two bites of dry cereal.

Lunch—one slice of rimless bologna, half soda cracker, a sprig of parsley.

Dinner: a broiled oyster, a lettuce leaf and one grape (white).

9:00 P. M.- one pint Four Roses.

Midnight - four eggs fried in mayonnaise, three fat hamburgers with "everything," loaf of bread, quarter pound of butter, quart of thick milk, strawberry shortcake!

Several splendid books have recently been published. I am awaiting a chance to read Ernest Hemingway's first novel in ten years, Across the River and Into The Trees." And another splendid book for all Americans is "Bernard Baruch: Portrait of A Citizen." Any list of great contemporary Americans would surely carry the name of "Barney" Baruch. This book is a full-length profile of the South Carolinian who took himself by his bootstraps, hiked himself with the greatest ease over abounding obstacles to financial luxury, served as advisor to Presidents, forecast the future with astonishing accuracy and now ranks as our nubbiest one "elder statesman." He started out running errands for $3 a week, and then moved over to Wall Street. He became an expert for on the Slack and her two children.

The fund will be used only for Mrs. Slack and the children, Joe, 4, and Tommy, 2, and not for her husband's defense.

Mrs. Lewis Slack, sister-in-law of the accused man, said the family's income was cut off by the arrest. She said their home had been mortgaged and was still unfinished. She said it probably could not be sold or rented.

There was a meeting of the executive committee of the Appomattox Parent-Teacher Association September 7, to play local PTA activity for this school session. Committee chairmen were named, plans were made for improving programs and it is hoped that they may be set up far enough in advance so that a list of program features may be sent out early in the year. Ways and means of financing the several projects that have been suggested for PTA sponsorship were discussed. It was decided to have one first meeting of the PTA on Tuesday, September 26 at 8:00 P. M. in the high school cafeteria. As in the past, the main feature of the September meeting is a reception for new and returning teachers. This year, Miss Anne Harrison, the new supervisor, will be honor guest and speaker of the evening. 1951 Wheat Acreage Notices Are Mailed

Appomattox County farmers are now receiving allotment noices giving the amount of wheat they may seed this fall for the 1951 crop, the local office of the Production and Marketing Administration has announced.

Individual allotments in most cases do not vary a great deal from 1950 and represent a division of the county allotment based on each farm's recent wheat production history.

Bennett Harding, PMA county committee chairman, is asking the farmers to cooperate under the 1951 wheat program by seeding within their allotments. "By doing so they can be sure of getting price support at least equal to the level this year," he said, "and they will be assisting toward continuing our present sound wheat market, both from the standpoint of supply and price."
